Compulsory Transfers

There was an excellent attendance at the Special Southern Branch meeting held Wednesday on 24/10/07 reflecting the extent of concern on this issue. Over 120 members attended in person and more than 100 members sent their apologies. Vigorous debate occurred over a range of issues.

Discussion between PAT and DPEM, the discussion at the Southern Branch meeting and the actions taken by the PAT Executive will be reported to all Branches at the next round of Branch Meetings in November. You can have your say by attending those meetings.

PAT online forum

You can also have your say on the PAT online forum. Many members have already registered and are contributing on a number of topics. The forum now has two new enhancements, you can see who is currently accessing the forum and you can also send any member of the forum a private message.

To send a private message click on the link telling you whether you have messages or not, click on the new topic link, search for the person you wish to send a message to, type your message, submit.

To gain access to the forum go to <http://www.pat.asn.au/>, click on Members Only and follow the prompts. If you have any problems please contact our friendly staff who will assist you. The forum is secure and only members of the PAT can gain access.

Qantas Club Membership

The PAT is now able to offer discounted Qantas Club membership. The PAT discounted rates are: $265.00 for 1 year's membership (usual retail rate is $405.00). A 2 year membership offers even better rates. Joining fees apply to those that are not Qantas Club members. Phone the PAT office on 0362 781900 for further information and for our Corporate Scheme Number. Discounted Qantas fares also apply.

PAT Website

Do you have an interest or skills in web design? The PAT is looking for ideas to make our website more contemporary. If you are interested in submitting an idea we would love to hear from you. The member that submits the best accepted proposal will receive a promotional "goodie" pack from the PAT. For further information please contact the PAT.
